

This topographic map of the Hunter region in New South Wales, Australia, displays the Hunter River and its tributaries. The map is overlaid with a coordinate grid. Key locations and features include:

- Towns and Settlements: Hunter-Diggora, Kamarooka, Huntly, Goornong, Elmore, Rochester, Corop, Corop West, Colbinabbin, and Toolleen.
- Infrastructure: The Hunter-Diggora Dam is visible near Hunter-Diggora. The Hunter River flows through the region.
- Administrative Boundaries: District 02 and District 20 are marked with dashed lines.
- Geographical Features: The map shows various hills, valleys, and water bodies.

The map includes a coordinate grid with latitude and longitude markings. The latitude ranges from 46 to 68, and the longitude ranges from 70 to 100.

- Main
- Satellite

Date Created: 9 Nov 2025